Milwaukee-Area Phone numbers, Hotlines, Email Addresses, and Websites for COVID Vaccine Information and Appointments

Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, February 07, 2021

While most major health systems have asked those eligible for a vaccine not to call their doctor's offices and hospitals — and instead wait to hear from them — some vaccine providers have set up vaccine information and registration hotlines for those who might not have an internet connection, a smartphone or an email address.

Below is a list of phone numbers, email addresses, links, and directions on how to register for a vaccination appointment at Milwaukee-area health departments and health systems.

Milwaukee County

Milwaukee County's website, HealthyMKE.com, allows residents to sign up for vaccine updates as well as get connected with a vaccine provider.
